

The 'Johnson Fund' was originally founded in 1710 with a small sum of money left by the Rev Daniel Fitter to provide for the needs of the clergy in sickness or old age. The Association owes its name to the first administrator who was the Rev John Johnson (1711-1739).

Through the Archdiocese of Birmingham, The Johnson Association supports about seventy retired, sick or infirm priests of the Diocese. This is done through grants that are made to them. Priests who are sick receive financial support during their period of illness. Priests who have retired apply for a discretionary grant which will support them throughout the retirement.

Last year (2018/19) the Johnson Fund paid £382, 266 in grants. The average age of a priest in the Archdiocese is currently 62 yrs. This means that the number of Priests applying for a grant will grow as priests are due to retire in the next 10 years.
