The obligation for the faithful to attend Holy Mass on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation remains suspended. All the faithful are asked to make an Act of Spiritual Communion:

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there,
and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Absolution may not be given remotely but if you wish to talk about these circumstances to Fr John in person please telephone him: 01562 777319.

COMMEMORATED and CELEBRATED THIS WEEK

Mulroy Hague Window, St Mary's Harvington

ST NICHOLAS OWEN was born in 1562 in Oxford into a devout recusant family and trained as a carpenter and joiner. As a Jesuit lay brother, he became the servant of Henry Garnet SJ, the Superior of the English mission, in 1588 - a time when the penalty for Catholic priests discovered in England was torture and death. His carpentry skills were used in building priest holes or hiding places in the houses of Catholics all over the country. Known as "Little John", (few of his clients knew his real name) Owen was of very short stature and suffered ill health, including a hernia. Nevertheless, he spent eighteen years doing strenuous physical labour in cramped spaces, always alone and at night to avoid discovery. He is credited with the construction of hides in Harvington Hall.

At St Mary's, St Nicholas Owen is memorialised in the stained-glass window in the vestibule, porch area. The window, given to the church in 2005, is dedicated to the deceased members of the Mulroy and Hague families and includes the figure of St Nicholas Owen against a background of Harvington Hall.

In the nave of the church there are two sculptures by the artist and long-time parishioner of St Marys, Gabrielle Mercer one of which depicts St Nicholas Owen dressed in the artisan costume of the day, with his cloak and his bag of carpentry tools nearby. The horse is a reminder of his many journeys across the country creating hides in other Catholic houses. High on the right-hand side of the statue, amid the branches of a tree, is the facade of the original Hindlip Hall, where he was eventually captured with two others, Blessed Edward Oldcorne and Father. Henry Garnet. The four small figures to the left of St Nicholas Owen show the three future martyrs being taken by a token soldier to the Tower of London, the facade of which is above that of Hindlip Hall. Rodin's Burghers of Calais inspired these figures. On the extreme left-hand side of the statue, in relief, is St Nicholas on the rack of torture, where he died on March 2nd, 1606, a martyr to his beliefs and faith. He was canonized in 1970 and his Memorial Day in Worcestershire is 23rd January.
