We are very pleased so many people have been attending Masses here at St Mary's during these past few months when restrictions have been in place. On some occasions the church has been full to the restricted capacity currently in place to keep everyone safe from the potential spread of the Covid-19 virus. Consequently, to avoid disappointment, places at ALL MASSES must be booked in advance. This may be done by email at any time:

stmarysrc.harvington@gmail.com or by phone: 01562 777319 on Friday mornings 10.00 - 12.00.

Don't forget, Mass Readings may be found online:

The obligation for the faithful to attend Holy Mass on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation remains suspended.

All the faithful are asked to make an Act of Spiritual Communion:

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.

I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there,
and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

THE SACRAMENT OF PENANCE is difficult to conduct in these times of more strict personal distancing. We have always known that an act of contrition with the intention of attending Confession as soon as possible is sufficient for receiving God's forgiveness. Absolution may not be given remotely but if you wish to talk about these circumstances to Fr John in person please telephone him, 01562 777319.

There are a variety of different Acts of Contrition suggested in the Rite of Penance.

Act of Contrition (traditional)

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because of thy just punishments, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all good and deserving of all my love.

I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY, which was kept in the East and in certain Western Churches before being observed in Rome, seems to have been originally a feast of the nativity; January 6, for those churches where it was kept, was the equivalent of Christmas (December 25) in the Roman Church. The feast was introduced at Rome in the second half of the sixth century and became the complement and, so to say, the crown of the Christmas festival.

Epiphany means manifestation. What the Church celebrates today is the manifestation of our Lord to the whole world; after being made known to the shepherds of Bethlehem He is revealed to the Magi who have come from the East to adore Him. Christian tradition has ever seen in the Magi the first fruits of the Gentiles; they lead in their wake all the peoples of the earth, and thus the Epiphany is an affirmation of universal salvation. St. Leo brings out this point admirably in a sermon, read at Matins, in which he shows in the adoration of the Magi the beginnings of Christian faith, the time when the great mass of the heathen sets off to follow the star which summons it to seek its Saviour.

That is the meaning, too, of the wonderful prophecy from Isaias which the liturgy appoints to be read in the first nocturn at Matins and at the Epistle of the Mass. This same thought of universal redemption the Church returns to as she sings, in the antiphon to the Magnificat at 2nd Vespers, applying the words to herself, of the union with Christ typified by the wedding feast at Cana, by the baptism of her children foreshadowed by that of Christ in the waters of the Jordan. Formerly the Epiphany was an additional day for solemn baptisms.
