WELCOME TO ST MARY'S!

- Ours is a small church with just one central aisle and with limited ventilation. Whilst there is no legal requirement to wear a face covering the government suggests: '... that you continue to wear a face covering in crowded and enclosed spaces where you may come into contact with other people you do not normally meet. Social distancing in a place of worship is now a personal choice. People are encouraged to respect other attendees and those working who may wish to adopt a more cautious approach.' www.gov.uk/guidance/covid-19-guidance-for-the-safe-use-of-places-of-worship
- If members of the congregation would like to ensure social distancing they may use a 'Please Leave Space' sign (available in the porch) and place it on the seat beside them in their pew. Please spread out and don't kneel if someone is sitting on the pew in front.

We have received this invitation from Fr Douglas Lamb:
On April 8th at 7:30 pm the parish of St Ambrose in Kidderminster will be holding a SERVICE OF HEALING during which we can bring life's hurts before the Eucharistic presence of Our Lord, where we can pray for understanding and acceptance, for renewed hope and commitment, and for that peace which only Our Lord can offer. There will be Eucharistic exposition, readings, hymns and prayers, together with reflections and a period of intercession. Those who wish may receive an anointing with oil, and we will conclude by receiving the Eucharistic Benediction. Then there will be a hymn to Our Lady, and a blessing with holy water. Please encourage those who have become separated from us to come along – anyone who may have need for a healing moment in life. Members of other Christian communities are very welcome.

COMMEMORATED and CELEBRATED THIS WEEK

St. Isidore by Murillo

SAINT ISIDORE (c. 560 – April 4, 636) was born in Seville, Spain. He was Archbishop of Seville for thirty-five years and was well known in the fourth council of Toledo (633) for his leadership. He was declared a Doctor of the Church in 1722. He strengthened Catholicism in Spain; he was admired for his preaching , his writings, and his miracles.

An amazingly learned man, he was sometimes called “The Schoolmaster of the Middle Ages” because the encyclopaedia he wrote was used as a textbook for nine centuries. He required seminaries to be built in every diocese, wrote a Rule for religious orders, and founded schools that taught every branch of learning. Isidore wrote numerous books, including a dictionary, an encyclopaedia, a history of Goths, and a history of the world—beginning with creation! He completed the Mozarabic liturgy, which is still in use in Toledo, Spain. For all these reasons, Saint Isidore has been suggested as patron of the Internet.

San Vicente by Juan de Juanes

SAINT VINCENT FERRER (January 23, 1350 – April 5, 1419) was born in Valencia, Spain. He was renowned as a preacher, missionary, and a teacher of theology. He converted thousands of sinners, Jews and Moors by his preaching. He died in 1419 while preaching in Brittany and was buried at Vannes. Saint Vincent Ferrer is the Patron Saint of Builders, Businessmen, Reconciliation

Official portrait of Saint John Baptist de la Salle

SAINT JOHN BAPTIST DE LA SALLE (April 30, 1651 – April 7, 1719) was born in Rheims, France. He was known as the Father of Modern Pedagogy. He opened free schools for the poor children, introducing new teaching methods. He organised the congregation called the Brothers of Christian School, which made great contributions to popular education.

Saint John Baptist de la Salle is the Patron Saint of Teachers.
