WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY, 29 MAY 2022

Taken from a letter from His Grace, Archbishop Bernard Longley:

World Communications Day falls this year on the 29 May. A second collection on this day is one of the three mandatory collections agreed by the Bishops' Conference. I fully appreciate that there are many other important collections requested throughout the year and so many worthy causes are in particular need in these turbulent times of pandemic and economic uncertainty.

In addition to promoting the Church's and the Bishops' message in the local, regional, national and international mass media, the Bishops' Conference Media Office (CCN) helps journalists with their queries and to a better understanding of the Church's activities and witness.

CCN also runs the Bishops' Conference website, which has been the primary source of information throughout the pandemic, online Masses and spirituality and ways to assist charitably (whether through foodbanks, caring for the elderly and vulnerable, assisting refugees and the homeless etc). Record numbers of people have used this website www.cbcew.org.uk over the past two years of the pandemic as a principal means of Church communication and as a provider of information and resources. As we emerge from the pandemic, communications will become even more important as we seek to re-establish more regular patterns of worship and continuing to promote our Gospel values in assisting the vulnerable in our midst.

Pope Francis has set a theme for this day: Listening with the ear of the heart (or as Pope Francis puts it: The apostolate of the ear)

Yours devotedly in Christ

+ Bernard

✠ Bernard Longley
