FAMILY FAST DAY was on FRIDAY 7 OCTOBER.

By having had a simple meal on that day and by giving what you save in the second collection this weekend, you'll be standing in solidarity with vulnerable people who are threatened by the global food crisis.

CAFOD stands for the Catholic Agency For Overseas Development. They are an international development charity and the official aid agency of the Catholic Church in England and Wales.

CAFOD works with people living in poverty whatever their religion or culture in communities across Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East, helping people to tackle the poverty and injustice. Wherever the need is greatest, CAFOD works to support people of all faiths and none.

CAFOD works without prejudice and without preaching as it believes our Catholic values are best shown through working for justice and an end to poverty. As well as asking supporters to donate and campaign, CAFOD places equal importance on prayer. Prayer informs and underpins their work.

*Everlasting God,
we give you thanks
for you nourish and strengthen us with your merciful love.*

Give us this day our daily bread.

*We pray for those who hunger in scorched lands,
with no food for their children.
Together, we cry out for justice.*

Give us this day our daily bread.

*Help us to share generously
as one global family,
and to hold onto hope
for a world transformed.*

Give us this day our daily bread.

*Bread of life,
we pray your people
may find life and joy
in all its fullness.*

*Through Christ our Lord,
Amen.*

PRISONS WEEK

PRISONERS' WEEK began in England and Wales in 1975 as a Roman Catholic initiative started by Bishop Victor Guazzelli, but quickly gained ecumenical support and the patronage of: The Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of Westminster, the Archbishop of Wales and the Moderator of the Free Churches Group. In 1993 Prisoners' Week became a registered charity and in 1995, seeking to focus attention not only on the needs of prisoners but on all those involved and affected by prison (including prisoners families, victims of crime, prison staff, those working in other parts of criminal justice and many volunteers) the week became known as PRISONS WEEK, and the committee known as the Prisons Week Committee.

PRISONS WEEK raises awareness and generates prayer. It motivates volunteers to step forward and give their time and gifts, in prisons and in their own communities. It provides an annual focus and reason for Christians to work together, building capacity and motivation to make a difference for people who are out of sight and often out of mind.

PRISONS SUNDAY – the second Sunday in October – marks the beginning of the week of prayer each year, running through until the following Saturday.

Prayers for each day of the week may be seen on the posters in our church porch and found online at: www.prisonsworld.org/about/

The prayer for the first day of Prison's Week, Sunday 9 October is on the theme of Hostility:

As Jesus made his way to Jerusalem, he went along the border between Samaria and Galilee. Luke 17:11

Lord Jesus, you knew how it felt to be in hostile territory. Send your Holy Spirit to be with everyone who is experiencing fear today and especially those spending their first night in prison. Stay close to guide and strengthen them so that they in their turn may open their hearts to know you, to love you, to serve you and to thank you. And we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
