THE CATHOLIC CHURCH
BISHOPS' CONFERENCE OF ENGLAND AND WALES

Racial Justice Sunday, celebrated in the Catholic Church on Sunday 1st February this year, is the day the church focuses on the need to oppose racism and pursue racial justice with renewed vigour.

Bishop Paul McAleenan, as Lead Bishop for Racial Justice, welcomes this year's theme: "Whoever loves God must also love his brother"

(1 John 4:21): Promoting Racial Justice in our Parishes.

"Where racial justice is concerned, we must never tire of repeating what has been said before, though we always seek new ways to convey our message. Racial Justice Sunday 2026 is devoted to the promotion of racial justice in our Catholic parishes across England and Wales and society and an encouragement to be conscious of the need for justice in all its forms.

In an increasingly tense climate, it is imperative that we listen to, and learn from, the experiences, challenges and opportunities encountered in the mission of promoting racial justice in Catholic parishes today. Our parishes should be places where we can all truly grow in ever-deeper knowledge and love of each other, ourselves and God."

*Come, Holy Spirit, show us your beauty, reflected in all the peoples of the earth,
so that we may discover anew
that all are important and all are necessary, different faces of the one humanity
that God so loves.
Amen.*
