The HARVINGTON BOOK GROUP are reading The Remains of the Day by Kazuo Ishiguro. It is beautifully written; there is real sadness and a sense of wasted life about the story - but don't be put off! If you have already read it, or would like to do so, you will be welcome to come to the discussion when we next meet in the Stable, at 9.30am on Monday 8 June

HANDBELL RINGING! It's never too late to learn a new skill and a friendly group of handbell ringers would be delighted to welcome you to join them at 2pm on a Monday afternoon at St Cassian's church in Chaddesley Corbett for an informal taster session. Experience or the ability to read music is not essential, just come along with a willing pair of hands and enjoy making music together. For more information please speak to Jean Lloyd or Joan McKay after Mass or email St Mary's parish office and your enquiry will be forwarded to Jean and Joan (stmary.harvington@rcaob.org.uk)

Sunday 31 May: Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity

Firmly I believe and truly

God is Three, and God is One;
And I next acknowledge duly
Manhood taken by the Son.
And I trust and hope most fully
In that Manhood crucified;
And each thought and deed unruly
Do to death, as He has died.
Simply to His grace and wholly
Light and life and strength belong,
And I love, supremely, solely,
Him the holy, Him the strong.
And I hold in veneration,
For the love of Him alone,
Holy Church, as His creation,
And her teachings, as His own.
And I take with joy whatever
Now besets me, pain or fear,
And with a strong will I sever
All the ties which bind me here.
Adoration aye be given,
With and through the angelic host,
To the God of earth and heaven,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

John Henry Cardinal Newman (1801-1890)

Firmly I Believe and Truly Taken from 'The Dream of Gerontius' 1865
